REPLY TO RTI OF THIRU K.RADHAKRISHNAN :

With reference to the RTI Application submitted by Thiru K.Radhakrishnan it is stated that sufficient information/documents were not submitted by the petitioner in order to trace out the relevant information available with this office. However based on the year of availing loan stated by the petitioner in the RTI application it has been ascertained that the petitioner could have availed the loan under Prime Minister's Rozgan Yojana (PMRY) Scheme, The PMRY scheme was discontinued in the year 2007-08 by Govt of India after introduction of new scheme namely Prime Minister's Employment Generation Programme (PMEGP) in 2008-09.

As such, in spite of strenuous effort taken by this office to trace the records of Thiru K.Radhakrishnan under PMRY scheme, records could not be traced out, as the records are 17 years old and the whereabouts of the records is unknown.

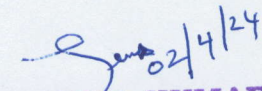

Further it is stated, that the information sought by the petitioner pertains to the release of subsidy for the loan he could have availed under PMRY Scheme, for which, it is stated that the role of District Industries Centre (DIC), Puducherry, under PMRY Scheme is to identify and forward the applications to the District Level Committee, which in turn shall scrutinize the applications and forward the same to the concerned Banks. It is the role of the respective bank to check the viability and bankability of the project and provide financial assistance. Furthermore, it is stated that as per the point No.(i) (Subsidy Disbursal) of clause No.9 (Subsidy Management) of the PMRY scheme guidelines the following may be noted:

"The subsidy will be made available by Government of India in advance and passed on to the banks through Reserve Bank of India. The subsidy portion

As such it may be observed that as per the PMRY scheme the bank shall directly claim the subsidy amount from Reserve Bank of India and disburse the same to the beneficiary directly as per the procedures stated in the PMRY guidelines. Accordingly, the informations pertaining to sanction and disbursal of loan to Thiru. K. Radhakrishnan along with subsidy claim details submitted to RBI and details of subsidy disbursed to the beneficiary shall be available only with the concerned bank.
